Reflection Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up though the pace seems slow
You may succeed with another blow. - Author unknown

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Kay McGandy, College Gardens
May they rest in peace.

Parish Messenger – 2nd March 2014

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PEACE PROJECT NIGHT

The Priests of the Parish are most grateful to all who attended the Dinner and Discussion on 19th February organised by the Irish Churches Peace Project (ICPP). The food was good and the conversation around the chosen topics was open and interesting. We appreciate the efforts of many people to be present and to take part fully in the discussion. It is hoped that this event will lead to further meetings and conversations in the months and years ahead. The work of healing and building bridges will take time and effort. It is good work and we appreciate the efforts of the local coordinator, Glenn Harvey, and the others from the ICPP who organised this happy and worthwhile gathering
