Reflection

On the Feast of All Souls, we pray for the souls of all those who have died. The readings for this day, all focus on our belief in the resurrection of the dead and Jesus' promise of eternal life.

The Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus offers us many important insights about this aspect of our faith. Jesus was good friends with Lazarus who has fallen ill. Martha and Mary send word to Jesus. When Jesus arrives, he finds that Lazarus has been buried for four days. The scene is a sad one. Martha goes out to meet Jesus when he arrives. She cries with him, saying that if Jesus had been there, Lazarus would not have died. Yet she remains confident that God will do whatever Jesus asks. Jesus consoles her with the promise that Lazarus would rise from the dead. Martha affirms her belief that there will be resurrection of the dead in the last days. Jesus promises her even more; he says that he himself is the Resurrection and the life for all those who believe in him. Martha professes her faith in this, acknowledging that Jesus is Christ, the Son of God.

This is the profession of faith we continue to make, and it is the promise on which we base our hope for eternal life for ourselves and for all those who have died. In his death and Resurrection, Jesus has conquered death for all those who believe in him.

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Pat McQuaid, New York, Tydavnet; Nellie McGeehan, County Care Home and Irvinestown. May they rest in peace.
