Reflection

Love - sacrifice and service

The best marriages, the only marriages that reach to the heavens, are the ones where the couples live for each other. Ego has been set aside. Intimacy peaks when ego has been banished. This does not happen overnight. Rome was not built in a day. Relationships are a work of art in progress. It takes a whole lifetime of uphill battles, many failures and the grace of God to rid ourselves of ego and be last in God's kingdom.

It is said that Gandhi, who was a Hindu, had two portraits in his study. One showed Jesus hanging on a cross; the other showed Jesus washing the feet of his disciples. The word beneath the portrait of Jesus on the Cross was sacrifice; the word beneath the portrait of Jesus washing the feet was service. Service and sacrifice are two sides of the one coin of great love and great service.
