Reflection

The symbol of the vineyard is for us a mirror where we can see reflected the personal and communitarian history of our relationship with God. Today, it is the church, this great vineyard that the Lord cultivates and cares for and that is entrusted to us, the vinedressers who has the task of continuing the mission started by him. This is certainly a tall order. Nevertheless, as church, we are aware of the tension that exists and that the church may experience between fidelity and infidelity, between refusal and welcoming. Today's Gospel tells us that, notwithstanding the difficulties and seeming fragility, nothing can stop the love of God for us, not even the elimination of his Son, and, in fact, it is this sacrifice that gains salvation for all.

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Joseph (Joe) McPhillips, Galliagh Terrace; Joe McKeown, Ashbrooke NH and Derrin Road; Anne Kilcoyne, Tarmon Brae. May they rest in peace.

We also pray for the parents and family of little Shayne Magee and ask the Lord to comfort and console them in their sad loss.
