Reflection

Dear Lord, we who are parents and family need your help. You have entrusted our children to our love and care. Give us the strength and patience to cope with the many difficulties of family life and grant us the grace to be deeply thankful for its many joys and blessings.

Let our children come to know of your love, through our love for them. Help us as we try to make our home a place where love dwells, a home like that of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. When we fail each other and when we hurt each other, soften our hearts so that forgiveness and reconciliation comes quickly and easily.

Protect our family, Lord, and let us grow in the light of your love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

clergy but truly recognised as 'co-responsible' for the Church's being and action.' that emerged more recently. Part of the remit of the Parish Pastoral Council will be to help support and to provide linkage between the various ministry groups. At their best, Parish Pastoral Councils foster and give expression to a parish sense of community and 'communio' (a Latin word that expresses togetherness and connectedness). As Pope Benedict XVI said at Castel Gandolfo last August, 'Feel the commitment to work for the Church's mission to be your own, through prayer, through study, through active participation in ecclesial life, through an attentive and positive gaze at the world, in the continual search for the signs of the times.' Patrick came to share the Good News to the people of Ireland. We are doing what he did in a way.
