Reflection

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It can be hard for us to grasp what Jesus means when he talks about the kingdom. He tells Pilate that his kingdom is 'not of this world'. He is a King, but not the king we might expect. He does not have an army to save him from being arrested and put to death. He has not come to reign on earth, to amass power or to ride into battle, but rather to bear witness to the truth.

Those who are on the side of truth listen to Jesus' voice. What would our lives be like if we were to truly live according to the teachings and example of Jesus?

Deaths: We remember in prayer the recently deceased; Bridie Flanagan, Derrygonnelly; Arthur Murphy, Kinawley. May they rest in peace.
