Reflection

In the Gospel for this coming Sunday Jesus is teaching His disciples how they should pray.

The prayer Christ gives us reminds us that we are called to know God as a loving parent and to recognise that we belong to another Kingdom, to His kingdom, a kingdom built on love and mercy. If we are truly to be a people of this kingdom we must put our trust in God fully and seek to be a merciful people for we assure God in the prayer Christ has given us that He need only give us forgiveness in proportion to our willingness to forgive. Let us show our citizenship in the Kingdom of God by being a truly merciful people that we may possess God's mercy. When we find it difficult to forgive we pray:

Our Father, Who art in heaven

Hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Lily Maguire, 25 Kilmacormick Close; Gabriel Mallon, 23 Galliagh Park; Vera McGovern, Letterbreen May they rest in peace.
