

DIRECTIONS TO ST MICHAEL'S CHURCH, ENNISKILLEN

FROM BELFAST

Take the M1 from Belfast to the Ballygawley Roundabout and follow signs there for Enniskillen.

On the way in to Enniskillen, just past the 50mph speed limit, you will pass the Killyhevlin Hotel on your left. Further on, around the 40mph speed limit, you will pass the entrance to Castlecoole House (National Trust) on your right.

Just past the 30mph speed limit, at the traffic lights, keep in the left lane and go straight ahead. Once through the lights, go into the right lane.

You will pass McDonalds on your right just before the next traffic lights.

Go straight ahead, up Belmore Street.

Take the first fork to the right (you will see the Erne River on your right) down Queen Elizabeth Road.

At the first roundabout, turn left (uphill): you will see St Michael's Church directly ahead.

Take the first right (Head Street) which will give you access to the car park (for the use of which you must pay).

FROM DUBLIN

Take the M3/N3 to Cavan.

Go directly through the first junction (at the Kilmore Hotel) to the major roundabout before Cavan town itself.

Follow the signs for Enniskillen (taking the roundabout exit that leads to the right).

This road takes you through Belturbet and (once you cross the Border into Northern Ireland) through Derrylin.

Keep straight on this road and you will also pass through Bellanaleck village.

Eventually, as you approach the outskirts of Enniskillen, you come to a roundabout.

Take the last exit off that roundabout which leads to the right (This is called Sligo Road).

Keep straight on this road (The Sligo Road becomes Henry Street towards the end)

Drive into Enniskillen as far as the point where two bridges meet. (You can go no further forward without turning.)

Go into the left-hand lane when you get the choice as you come towards that point.

You will see the low stone wall of the second bridge directly in front of you.

Drive up to this wall and turn right (on to Ann Street).

At the traffic lights, turn left (on to Queen Street, which takes you past the Police Station).

At the first roundabout, turn right (uphill on Halls Lane): you will see St Michael's Church directly ahead.

The Library is on your right immediately.

Take the first right (Head Street) which will give you access to the car park (for the use of which you must pay).

FROM BALLYSHANNON/DONEGAL

Take the road through Belleek and drive directly to Enniskillen.

You will pass Portora Royal School on the way into Enniskillen.

You will also see the River Erne on your left with Willoughby Terrace on your right.

You will come to a junction at a bridge, where you must give way.

Go straight ahead.

At the traffic lights, turn left (which takes you past the Police Station).

At the first roundabout, turn right (uphill): you will see St Michael's Church directly ahead.

Take the first right (Head Street) which will give you access to the car park (for the use of which you must pay).
