Assisted Suicide: Currently, MPs are discussing and debating a matter of life and death. A private members' bill to legalise assisted suicide is currently going through parliament. If passed, this would mark a very significant change in our culture and its attitude towards suicide. Please write to your local MP raising your concerns about assisted suicide, and this bill in particular. Your message will show them that you are still invested in this issue and will help them to feel accountable for their vote. Pray that Assisted Suicide will not be introduced. Act now to stand for life by opposing suicide.
